REX EXPANDS DOMESTIC NETWORK WITH ADELAIDE TO SYDNEY FLIGHTS TAKING OFF

Rex will now connect Adelaide with Sydney, with its inaugural flight between Adelaide and Sydney resulting in passengers having more choice and greater competition leading to lower prices.

Today marks the start of daily flights between the two capital cities with Rex's fleet of Boeing 737-800NG jet aircraft.

“We’ve already seen strong demand from eager travellers which is positive,” said Rex Deputy Chairman, the Hon John Sharp AM.

“What Rex brings to the market is choice and affordable fares with an excellent customer experience. We are not surprised that Adelaideans have shown great interest in flying with Rex to Sydney, just as they have embraced the Rex services between Adelaide and Melbourne which launched in 2021.”

Rex is consistently proven to be the most reliable airline in Australia with the least cancellations.

Rex flights between Sydney and Adelaide are on sale with special launch fares from only $99* each way – hurry, the sale ends tomorrow. Business Class fares are also available from an affordable $399.

Adelaide Airport Managing Director, Brenton Cox, congratulated Rex for creating more choice on Adelaide’s second most popular route.

“Rex has again demonstrated its strong support for the Adelaide market, having introduced the Adelaide-Melbourne route in 2021. Today’s launch also comes just in time for the July school holiday peak,” Mr Cox said.

“I congratulate Rex on recognising the growth opportunity in Adelaide, and for encouraging travel with their enticing launch fares. The airline has been a great supporter of the Adelaide market, including regional links, for many years.”

The new route will not only strengthen travel options between Adelaide and Sydney but also facilitate more seamless connections between regional NSW and Adelaide, as well as between regional SA and Sydney.

Mr Sharp said, “When Rex launched domestic services, our primary goal was to enhance our regional network and expand our footprint. We continue to work as tirelessly as ever to keep Australians connected as Australia’s most reliable airline.”
